MOMENTUM BUILDING

Q2 results were in line with our forecasts. As in previous years sales and profits will be concentrated in Q4 when management expect the completion of several large projects. Electronic signature technology will be a key component in the migration of German Government departments to electronic media. News flow over the past quarter indicates that momentum continues to build in this area. At the same time sales to the private sector are also growing at an encouraging rate. We maintain our Strong Buy recommendation and price target of €5.00.

Preparing for Q4 The operating margin was lower y-o-y because of a build-up in personnel costs in connection with the projects which management expect in Q4. Increased depreciation due to higher capitalised development costs was also an important factor.

Operating cash flow positive at H1 stage, expected to increase further by year end H1 operating cash flow was strongly positive at CHF 1.7m, mainly due to a decrease in FY 2007 receivables. Receivables are likely to increase again by the end of 2008, but management believe that full-year operating cash flow will come in at CHF 2.0m.

Momentum building, also in the private sector Recent news flow discussed in our preview of 20 August regarding the German electronic ID Card (elektronischer Personalausweis - ePA) and the electronic administration of social security payments (ELENA - elektronischer Einkommensnachweis) show that momentum is building behind the adoption of electronic signature technology. The company still expects the public sector to account for over 50% of sales in 2008, but according to management the proportion accounted for by the private sector is rising.

Strong Q4 expected Like most software companies, OPENLiMiT's revenue is weighted towards the fourth quarter. In 2007 OPENLiMiT booked 75% of its revenues in Q4. For 2008 we expect this figure to be 71%. We leave our forecasts unchanged and maintain our €5.00 price target and Strong Buy recommendation.

ANALYST CERTIFICATION

We, Wladislaw Guentner & Simon Scholes, certify that the views expressed in this report accurately reflect our personal and professional views about the subject company; and we certify that our compensation is not directly linked to any specific financial transaction including trading revenue or asset management fees; neither is it directly or indirectly related to the specific recommendation or views contained in this research. In addition, we possess no shares in the subject company.

INVESTMENT RATING SYSTEM

First Berlin's investment rating system is five tiered and includes an investment recommendation and a risk rating. Our recommendations, which are a function of our expectation of total return (forecast price appreciation and dividend yield) in the year specified, are as follows:

STRONG BUY: Expected return greater than 50% and a high level of confidence in management's financial guidance
BUY: Expected return greater than 25%
ADD: Expected return between 0% and 25%
REDUCE: Expected negative return between 0% and -15%
SELL: Expected negative return greater than -15%

Our risk ratings are Low, Medium, High and Speculative and are determined by ten factors: corporate governance, quality of earnings, management strength, balance sheet and financing risk, competitive position, standard of financial disclosure, regulatory and political uncertainty, company size, free float and other company specific risks. These risk factors are incorporated into our valuation models and are therefore reflected in our price targets. Our models are available upon request to First Berlin clients.

Up until 16 May 2008, First Berlin's investment rating system was three tiered and was a function of our expectation of return (forecast price appreciation and dividend yield) over the specified year. Our investment ratings were as follows: BUY: expected return greater than 15%; HOLD: expected return between 0% and 15%; and SELL: expected negative return.
