OpenLimit Holding AG: Outstanding cooperation to build an identification server for electronic identity cards (eID server).

Baar, 13.08.2010

Baar, August 13, 2010 — Impuls systems GmbH and OpenLimit have formed a close cooperation to build an eID server. The collaboration, with the objective that the impuls systems GmbH will provide an authentication service to its customers, will begin immediately. The assignment includes consulting, planning and implementation of the eID server in the context of the new electronic identity card in Germany and will run for several years.

The impuls systems GmbH has successfully executed over 100 IT projects for its parent company, the impuls Finanzmanagement AG. In cooperation with OpenLimit the impuls group is the first financial service provider which fully integrates the electronic identity card in all areas. The impuls Finanzmanagement AG acts as an independent financial services provider and is a market leading broker in the private health insurance sector.

OpenLimit is proud to have the chance to work with this important customer.
